On Wednesday Evening 3rd. August 1898 Mr. James Marden came to invite the rectors and his wife to S. Marys and gave up his room to them. The whole town was in a station of excitement it being reported that the colonel was going to burn the town and kill all strangers also inhabitants even to suckling infants. The order was given to the soldiers to pierce with their bayonets.

8th October

The Lord, Bishop came from Ponce on a visit to the clergyman of All Saints his visit was quite unexpectedly but very agreeable to the congregation he remained on shore about an hour or more he returned to Ponce the same day where he is striving to revive the church again which had been closed for about four years.

21st. Sept, 1898

A man of war steamed slowly in port. The rector immediately wrote a letter to the American Colonel inviting him in the name of God before all things to come church in honours to the 1st. president of the U.S.A. and civil authority. He replied by saying yes. I am going to the Fort with this gentleman who was the Spanish Colonel he received returned with his band and marched the troops to church where special prayers Hymn 185. After Mr. Bean asked the Colonel if he had hoisted the American ensign he said no but I intend doing so to day at 12 o'clock the custom house. Mr. Bean received the ensign at the Altar rails and presented and dedicated it in the midst of hundred amens. All the high heads were presented at this grand reception.
