

December 18, 1923

The Rt. Rev. Manuel Ferrando,
Box 776,
Ponce,
Puerto Rico.

Dear Bishop Ferrando:

It is good to hear you had such a royal reception. You can be sure that had we been there we would have joined in the waving of banners.

I note that with regard to the rectory you have decided that the best way to handle it is to have an architect make a plan for permanent improvements and then to proceed along that plan a little at a time as funds for its costs are forthcoming. This would seem to be far wiser, as you say, than temporary patch work.

Sincerely yours,

ARG:M

Secretary for Latin America.
